

Joint PSGS- PALES Annual Conference 2023
“Traditional and Novel Perspective in GS in the Era of MIS”
July 18 – 22, 2023 | Shangri-La Mactan Cebu

The PSGS Annual Surgical Forum is being held together with the Philippine Association of Laparoscopic and Endoscopic Surgeons. The joint conference will be addressing traditional and current ways of diagnosing and treating surgical diseases. The indications, advantages and disadvantages of performing open and minimally invasive procedures on particular surgical conditions will be elaborated. Sessions have also been set aside for the discussion of issues arising in the training of surgical residents, ethical standards and professional development.

General Objective:

The conference aims to expound on the traditional and novel approaches in the management of surgical conditions and diseases. After the conference, participants are expected to be able to understand the different options available in treating surgical diseases and use this knowledge to further improve on their decision-making capabilities.

Specific Objectives:

After the conference, participants are expected to:

- 1) enumerate the traditional and novel treatment options for specific surgical diseases
- 2) discuss indications for each of these options
- 3) formulate appropriate management plans for particular surgical diseases
